

Standing Knight

Stand for the truth with love. Fight for justice and mercy

Different silhouettes give different meaning of every knight's stature. Adding weapons give strong aura of attack. Different types of hairstyle imbue different meaning of the knight's lifestyle. I want to portray the knight's openness and friendliness. Thus, I design simple hairstyle. And I need to ensure he has no weapon. The armour signifies self-protection from danger and symbolise his great responsibility. Besides that, his light and minimal armour enables him to move faster when necessary.

Standing Knight

Stand for the truth with love. Fight for justice and mercy

Born in a luxurious lifestyle in a hidden part of the earth. He has an older brother and two younger sisters. Parents often leave the house to earn a living leaving him and his siblings. Since young, he is full of curiosity and inquisitive. In the school, he is subject to bullies. That hurts him mentally, and psychologically. All he does is keeping quiet. However, things change for the better. One day, his younger sisters happen to witness the six boys bully their elder brother. They inform his eldest brother. His eldest brother comes to his rescue, and confronted the six boys. The school principal, teachers subsequently appear, and ambush them. Then they call the boys' parents, and his own parents.

His parents have to take their time off their work schedule to attend to the teachers' meeting. All the boys' parents apologized to his parents and him. The six boys reluctantly apologizes. Afterwards, they stop the bullying. His eldest brother, and physical education teacher patiently trains him in martial arts, and his studies. Every year, they send him to the martial arts, school subject competition. He courageously compete. To their surprise, he continuously win awards progressing from lowest rank to the highest rank medal.

A few years later is the end of the primary school. The six boys truly repent, and apologize to him. Then another boy appears behind them. He is the shortest amongst them. That boy sincerely want to make friends with him. He informs his siblings. The next day, they go with him to meet the boys. His big brother allows him to forgives them on the shortest boy's behalf. Finally, they exchange telephone number, and keep in contact.

Name: Takini

Age: 20-year-old

Characteristics

Gentle

Caring

Hardworking

Persevering

Empathize

Character Arc

From a gentle boy into a masculine boy

Wants: Be strong

Needs: To be understood

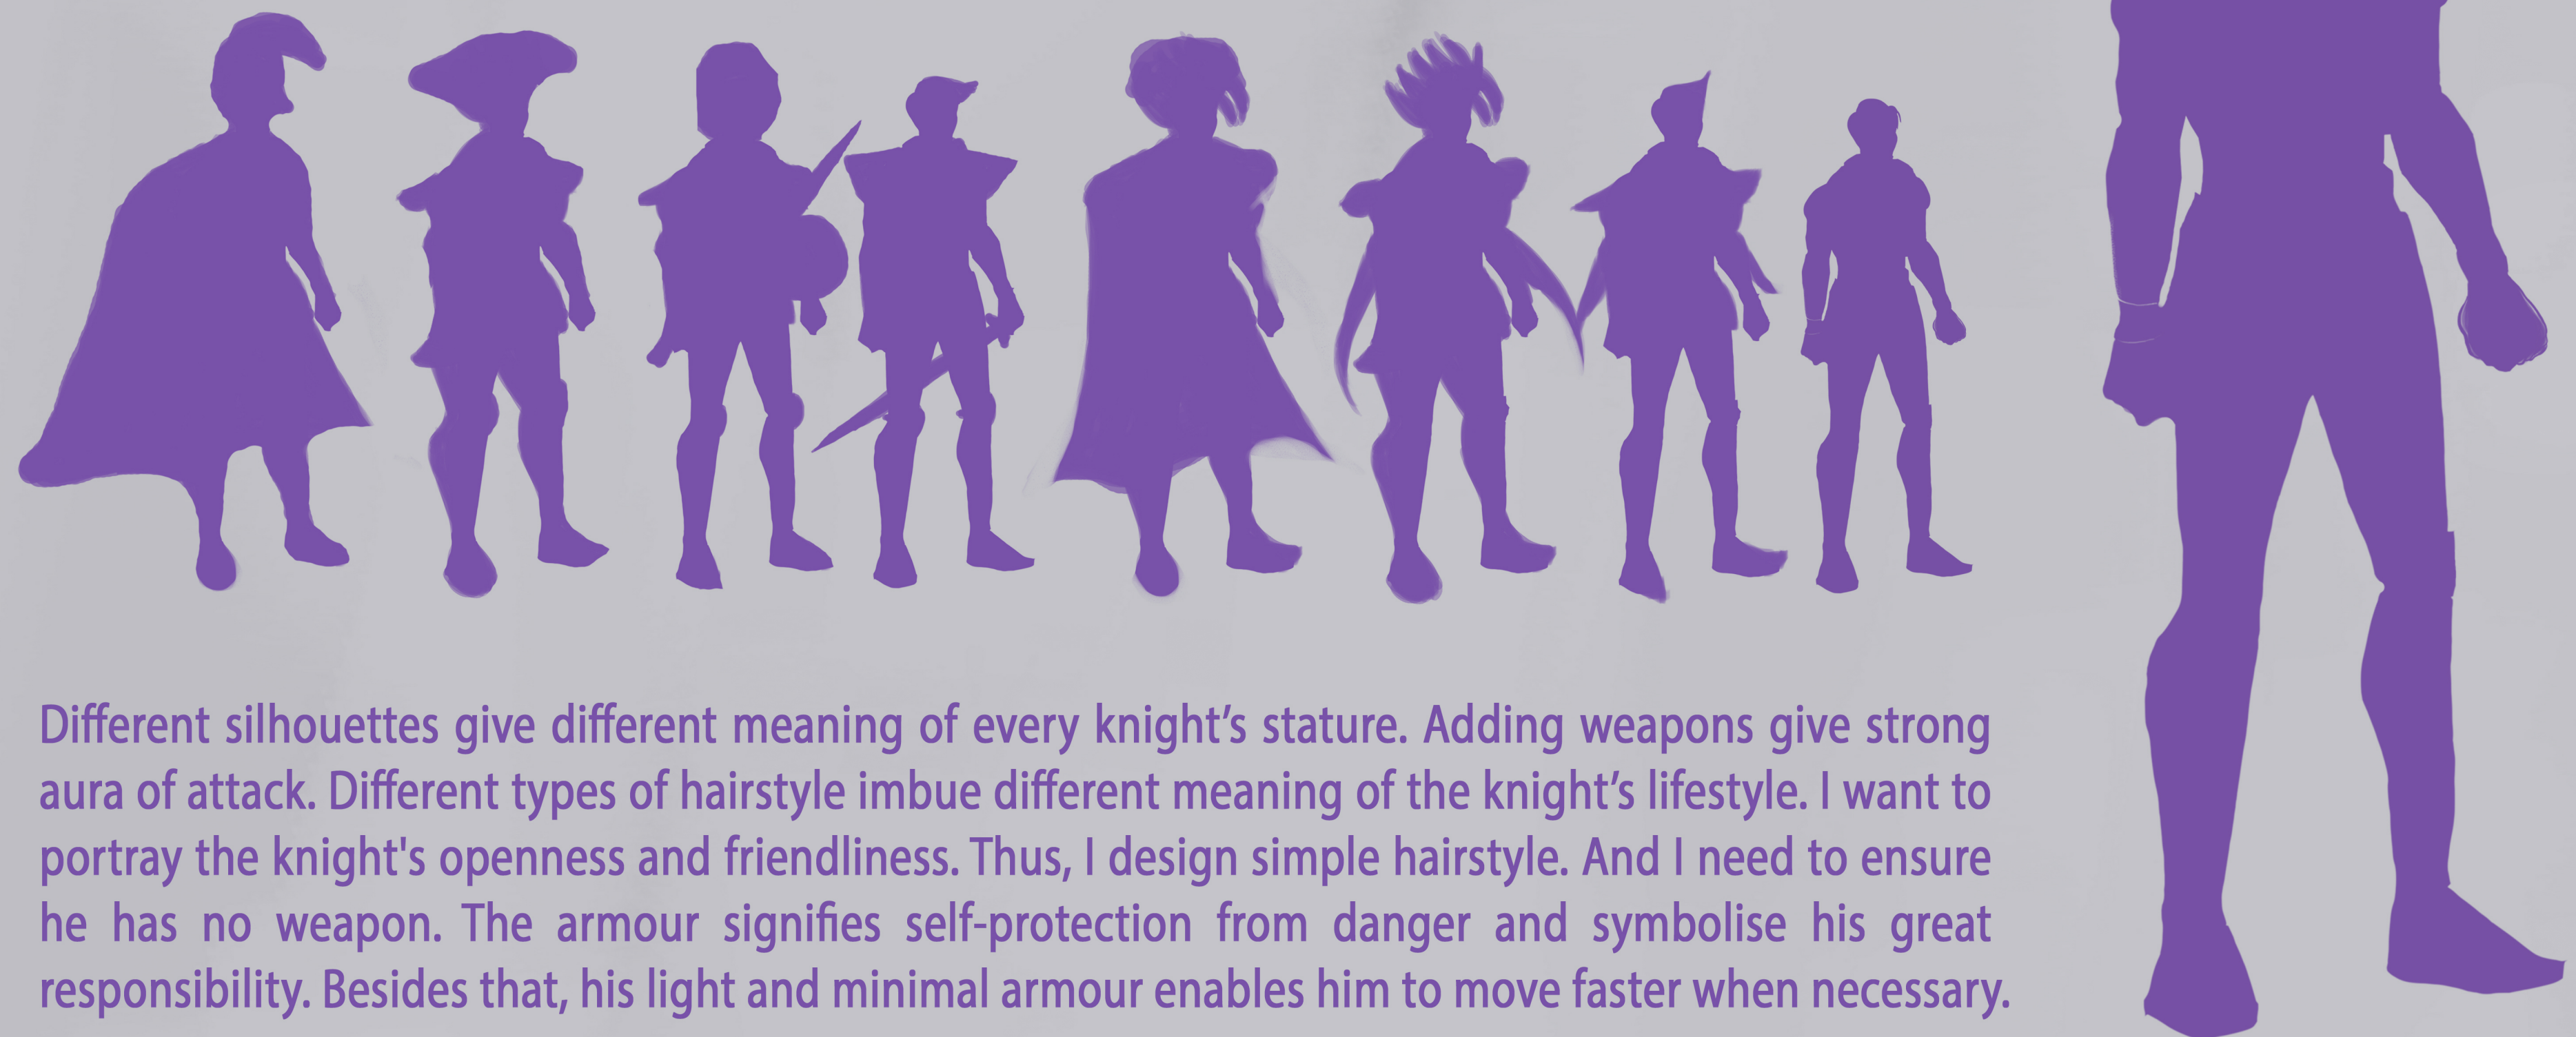

Mission: Truth, justice, mercy

Standing Knight

Character Concept Development Character Design

INDIGO

HONORABLE MENTION

Different silhouettes give different meaning of every knight's stature. Adding weapons give strong aura of attack. Different types of hairstyle imbue different meaning of the knight's lifestyle. I want to portray the knight's openness and friendliness. Thus, I design simple hairstyle. And I need to ensure he has no weapon. The armour signifies self-protection from danger and symbolise his great responsibility. Besides that, his light and minimal armour enables him to move faster when necessary.

Standing Knight

Character Concept Development
Character Turntable

